

FAQ

Sandhi

- is a classically trained fine artist
 - who is also self taught in creating her own paper mosaic techniques
 - that is not considered classic fine art
 - and straddle fine art and possibly craft
- creates original, one of a kind works on canvas
- utilizes eco-friendly adhesives, lacquers and paints -
 - her work should not be hung in direct sunlight or under halogen lighting;
 - this could cause color change in the original paper
- is a neurodivergent artist and tends not to work through the usual channels
- shows work through fine art galleries, and works with art advisors, curators, specifiers and designers
- requires galleries to take a minimum of 5 -10 works to exhibit and sell
- does not pay to apply for shows, or rent gallery wall space
- will not participate in online only exhibitions